“ To the Hutchins Family,
We both knew Grover at Reynolds Metals Company. We enjoyed the friendship that we shared and have special memories of shared stories (especially Thurman). He was a delight to know and we feel fortunate to have known him and have his friendship. We are very sorry for your great loss. He will be missed by all who knew him.

“ To Grover's family,
I deeply regret your loss of Grover. He and I worked together for many years at Reynolds where we shared a lot of laughs and stories. It was never dull when Grover around.
Again, I am so sorry for your loss.
