“ Harold was such a sweet person, I got to meet him and his sisters at Terrace Manor and you couldn't have ask for any sweeter family. I hated to hear of the passing of Sharon and then in the very same year the loss of Harold. Prayers with Dorothy and family.

“ I always picked him up when he would be going to Tri-Cities. He would write me a note and tell me just where to take him and would offer me what ever he had in his sack. I will miss him very much but he has gone to a wonderful place where he can be with his family.
