“ Thank you Uncle Harvey for all the memories. He worked hard all his life and never complain unless I ate his last apple pie Aunt Bertha had made. He was one who love to joke around. His son Kenneth Joe was one of two best childhood friends I had. His daughter was not an angel she was better than any angel. I want to thank the Wootens and everyone who helped my aunt and uncle through the years. I thank Pinkards funeral home, the pastor, the Wootens, the men who preform the tappes service for a moving service.##imported-begin##Johnny Harrison##imported-end##

“ Mother (Vena) and daddy (Gene) and all four kids went to Alabama every summer and many times at Christmas. We always stayed at Uncle Harveys and Aunt Berthie's. Those summers and holidays I will never forget. It was wonderful to wake up to the smell of sausage and eggs cooking and the wonderful homemade biscuits, fresh churned butter and of course Uncle Harvey's cane syrup, the best I ever had. Thank you Uncle Harvey for the memories. One last thing it was wonderful to see the picture of you and mother. She loved you so much. You were her hero.##imported-begin##Sharon Meyer Houston Texas##imported-end##

“ I only found out today about your passing. I was told a year ago that you passed shortly after my mother (Pauline) did in 2005. Now I know the reason I've felt so depressed. I have such fond memories of you. You sounded gruff as a bear but had the heart of a cuddly teddy bear. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you but I'll always love you. Rest in peace and give the family in heaven my love.##imported-begin##Brenda Worden##imported-end##

“ Rest in peace Mr. Berry. I have many fond memories of spending time at your home when Kayleen was alive. It's hard to believe you are all gone now, but I know you are all together in heaven...a family reunited once again.##imported-begin##Paula (White) Gallagher##imported-end##

“ I have such wonderful memories of Uncle Harvey and Aunt Berthie. I was Kitty Jo, their son was Kenneth Joe -- born just weeks apart. From our early days playing together, my most special treat each year was my week long visit to Aunt Berthie and Uncle Harvey's house, where Kenneth Joe and I roamed the pastures and fields together. Kenneth Joe was lost, then Kayleen. It changed Uncle Harvey a bit, made him more cautious around us kids. But I always saw through the gruffness and beneath to the heart of the man. As an adult, I enjoyed taking Mama (Pauline) to their house to "debate" over past memories. Mama and Uncle Harvey both had great minds for facts, figures, and dates. It sometimes took a trip to the cemetery to check the headstone to see who was right. Uncle Harvey was also great with puns and jokes -- I loved trading puns with him (he always got my weird intent). I have missed these visits. Now with Uncle Harvey's passing, the generation is gone. But I will forever cherish the memories he, Aunt Berthie, and Mama left with me.##imported-begin##Kitty Karson##imported-end##
