Hazel was a faithful member of the South Haleyville Church of Christ and while living in Birmingham, Heritage Place Church of Christ. Hazel's overflowing joy was a testament to her love and devotion to God. Her heart's desire was not material possessions, but her desire to live for God, to love and care for her family, and serve others, never expecting anything in return. Her desire to serve others was evident to all even during her declining years. While at Fair Haven, with joy and a smile on her face, she continued her life long service for others by volunteering to hang newly laundered clothing for other residents on her floor. The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude to the Fair Haven caregivers for their loving care and support and to Odyssey Hospice. A celebration of her life will be held at the Pinkard Funeral Home in Haleyville,

“ Dear Ruby:
My wife Judy and I just celebrated our 40th. Wedding Anniversary called our Ruby anniversary. It made me think of you today and I realized how blessed I have been to know you and be your cousin. Hazel was one of the kindest relatives in my childhood memory; she always loved and cared about us children and we knew it well. Accept my hug today from afar, I am sure God is hugging Hazel too! “ Ruby, Luke and Family: You have my deepest sympathy and prayers in your loss of your Mother/Grandmother. My heart goes out to you, as I so recently lost my own Mother and KNOW the pain you are feeling. I wish I could ease the pain for you, but I am so thankful we have a Heavenly Father who is there to ease the pain and to give peace which surpasses human understanding - and He promises He will never leave us or forsake us. You are in my prayers. I love you all!
