Polly was my dad's secretary for many years and a really sweet person, so sorry to hear of her passing and thoughts and prayers for family and friends

Polly was one of the kindest, most caring people I've ever known. She loved and was loved by many people who knew her and called her friend. Though she was not blessed with a child of her own, she helped nurture and guide numerous young people with her love and encouragement. Whether family or friend, all of us who knew her were blessed by God for allowing her to be a part of our lives!
