“ My deepest sympathies to the Tirey family. I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Tirey was a sweet man and although I didn't know him long he was a pleasure to take care of. He always had a smile and no matter what you did for him no matter how small he would always thank you and tell you " You a good person". Well Hilton you were a good person and you will missed. Sincerely Pat Mays

“ Lisa and Susan, We were sorry to hear of your dad's passing. As you may have known, we were Wilson Blvd neighbors for several years, a block between us. He was always pleasant and would occasionally stop for a chat. He delighted in telling me about you and your children. I am thinking about you. I too know how sad it is when our parents are gone, but Heaven is great beyond our words, and I thank God for that truth. Judy and Terry Pounders and family.
