“ Kathy, Sharon, Mrs. Haley and family...my heart goes out to all of you. I was out of town when I heard that JP had passed away. I'd wondered why he didn't come see me at the yard sale in October. He always came to give me a hug and tease me a bit. I'll miss that greatly. He was such a kind, sweet man and I know he will be missed a lot by all who knew him.

“ JP was a great fella. Always out to help someone. He was one of the best landlords that any one could ask for.

I agree with this statement. Could not have asked for a better fellow to call as a friend, neighbor or landlord. He also had one of the biggest senses of humor I have ever seen. He always wisecracking and making jokes.
