“ Elizabeth and family,
I have many fond memories of all of you. One that stands out was picking blackberries with you and James one 4th of July 53 years ago. His dry wit still makes me smile.
May God be with each of you and James memory bring you the peace you so richly deserve at this time

“ I had the pleasure of being Grandpa Glass' step-granddaughter for over 24 years and he was a great, great man. Even though I didn't get to see him often I still loved him a lot. He will be greatly missed.
