Enjoyed the video very much. It was a blessing to see a part of his life and Family from over the years.

Phyllis Brewer Willmon - June 22, 2016 at 04:18 PM

I'm so saddened to know of the passing of James. The video was wonderful. James was a true example of a good moral christian man. I saw him in several awkward moments that could have gone really bad while he was Game Warden. I always admired his professionalism and patients. I was so honored when the Horsley Family hired me to sit with Mrs. Horsley. When James came in the first time to talk with me he said Jill who are you married to now and when I told him Jeff he said girl you went from bad to worse and we both laughed so hard because he'd had run ins with both husbands. The family was so good to me and I loved his mom dearly. He will be forever missed and always remembered.

Praying for the Lord to hold this family in his loving arms and provide a peace in the hearts breaking over the passing of such a good man. Had the pleasure of growing up around James as a sportsman and hunter. James was always a honest and fair man. Always willing to give and help anyway he could. May you hunt the happy hunting grounds and and fish the lakes of Heaven but save a spot for me for when I walk up on you a friend I will have in the. Fly high old friend
