“ It is almost as hard today as it was a year ago Moma. I was preparing to let you go this time last year and my heart still is broken at your absence in our lives. It will never be the same.

“ My dearest Tamara and family,

I hope you understand that I will be unable to attend the service today for your Mom and Grandmother but you have been in my thoughts and prayers many times during these past few days. Just know that in the days ahead when you need a shoulder to lean on, you will have many here at the mental health and, hopefully, none stronger than mine...God will be there in the days ahead as he has always been...I'm going to leave you with a small poem that sits in my window as it has been since Tommy's death...It goes like this...

*Someday when home at last
We'll praise God for dark days
As stepping stones of love*

I know that you loved your Mom dearly and remember that you showed her and told her that often.

You, too, are loved and cherished by me and those around you. Don't forget.##imported-begin##Darlene (Dolly) Tubbs##imported-end##

“ Tamara, I am so sorry to hear about the death of my sweet friend. She and I were childhood friends-our parents were friends. She called me recently, to tell me that she was thinking about me, and that she loved me. My husband has a doctor's appointment this afternoon, and I cannot come to the funeral, but please remember that you and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers. Love you, Frances Tidwell##imported-begin##Frances Tidwell##imported-end##

“ It is a great loss to loose a mother....heaven has gained a beautiful soul that is now resting in the arm of her Holy Father. She is no longer suffering....she is no longer lives in fear....she no longer sheds tears. I can almost see it....she is at the foot of our Lord talking and smiling for she knows the day will come that she will be reunited with her loved ones.##imported-begin##Sara and EJ Batchelor##imported-end##
