“ Janette was my sister and I am grateful that God gave her to me because she was a wonderful person. We talked every night on the phone for years because I was in Michigan and she was in Alabama. We went on many trips together, I was the driver and she was the navigator...sometimes it didn't work out the way I planned, letting her navigate, but we got there okay. I will miss her terribly and I loved her so much.

“ I have such wonderful memories of my Aunt Jan. Her unwavering love, kindness and infectious laugh. I wish I could witness her reunion in heaven with all those she loved that went before her. Love to our Alabama family. Love, your Michigan family.
