“ I am so sad to hear the news and read the obituary of someone who I grew up knowing. Janice was always kind, sweet and would never say a harsh word during any situation. Sherry, your mom was one of a kind for sure and this world was lucky that you carried her traits with you in life. Russell, you were also a gentle soul, but the things I remember most were sitting and talking when I would visit on the weekends. You both always went the extra mile to make my stay fun and exciting. I have often caught myself thinking of her "Southern Grace". I will always hold the memories of you all in my heart. My prayers are with you all!
