“ Hi, I am the oldest daughter. I loved my dad so much, he's taught me so many things in life and he supported me so much. I miss him so so much. I wish I could just hug him and cry into him, but I know I can't do that right now. I will be able to when I go into death with him.

He always was there to talk to, and laugh with, even cry with. He was a great guy and an amazing father.

“ Mike and I hold Jason and Joy and their two children in such a special place in our hearts. We were lucky enough to live across the street from them for several years. And even luckier that we kept them as friends after they moved away to be home owners. One of our favorite memories of Jason was when he came to pick up Hannah and Brianna when we kept them a few months ago while Joy was in the hospital. We started talking about music we love and we introduced him to The Hu “Wolf Totem” and he LOVED it so much. And then he played “The Wellerman Sea Shanty” song for us from a game that he’d gotten into and we just enjoyed how much he loved and got into the music. I will never be able to listen to either of those songs again without thinking of our friend Jason. Our other favorite memory is of meeting Jason and Joy out for dinner. The first time we’d gone out since the pandemic lock down, to The Stovehouse. We talked about all the places we wanted to try together next and never got to. Spending any time around Jason, you knew how much he loved and adored the women in his life. And I know he will be looking out for them still.

“ I'm so sorry, Joy, so very very sorry. Our prayers for you and your daughters, is that God will forever be real and comforting, even in the most difficult of circumstances. He will never leave you. When I think of you and Jason, this is the way I remember you, on the August 21 day of your baptism, a happy day for certain.

“ Jason was bound and determined to Love you. He would chase you down to show that he Loved you even. Possibly the most emotionally intelligent person I've ever known. Creative with a great imagination.

I gave him one of those cards that says what your name means on it a couple of money he ago and it said Healer. He said he didn't know he was a healer. He has been a great healer to me though. We should all try to be more like him.

“ Joy, I'm not sure what to say that will comfort you in this tragic time. I know that Jason loved you very much and that you now have a hole that can't be filled easily. I always love seeing pics of you and Jason & the girls on Facebook having fun and spending time together as a family. Always remember those great times together. If you need anything, I am just a call away.

“ Our Condolences to Joy and the girls and to his Mother. His passing has been a shock to our church family. He served as an usher on Sunday mornings and worked hard to take care of his family. We will miss him. On Behalf of his church family, Holly Canup, Minister to Median Adults, FBC Huntsville.
