“ Jean Lyons was a wonderful woman with strong beliefs. She believed in giving everyone a chance and lending a helping hand. Jean was not one to sugar coat anything, she would tell it like it was even if it wasn't what you wanted to hear. Jean loved her family and friends with everything she had. All those that knew her loved her. She loved playing video games on her front porch and she loved her little dog Player. She is truly missed by her family, but we know she is with Jesus now, smiling down, and keeping a watchful eye. We love you mom.
