“ My parents Wayne and Sandra Turner were really close friends with Jeanette and Thurmon when we lived in St. Louis. My dad and Thurmon worked at the same place and my brother Clifford and I played with Terry and Tony...last time we saw Jeanette was probably 1998 or 1999 when my parents and I stopped by their house in Adamsville for a visit. Jeanette always had a smile on her face. Jeanette and Thurmon had a lifelong love and you could see it...I remember he always called her Nette. Sending special condolences and love and prayers from our entire family and from my parents-Love, Patricia (Anthony) Yocum
