“ My beloved Sister and Brother are together but gone from us. It hurts they are both gone. Their story is poignant but how it all happen was fitting. They met there, they married there, and on their anniversary they rejoined there. All of it happened at a place they called Home around people they called Family.

Her physical presence is gone from this world but her love remains here in us and in the actions we do in her name. She will never be truly gone from my heart nor from my life. We know who she truly is, authentically and unconditionally, without filters nor judgements nor masks to protect feelings.

I was blessed to have that last night with her. I was blessed to have that moment of clarity when she looked at me before she left. I was blessed she called me Sister and Friend. I am blessed she looked on my daughter as her own. I am blessed to know that even now I can still hear her voice in my heart saying "I'm ok".

I will always love Angelo and Jenny just as they will always love us.##imported-begin##Shannon##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers for the family.

We were just getting to know Jenny here at Riverbend and certainly miss her presence here. She was an excellent therapist and cooperative and helpful co-worker.

Her clients here are grieving her loss and miss her as well.

Miss you, Jenny,

“ To all who new Jenny, my thoughts and prayers are with you . I co-facilitated a group with her and got a chance to get to know her . In the short time I had to know her she was great . She and I had something in commen . We both loved animals especially dogs ! I was sad when she left here . One thing is for sure ,she is now with her soul mate and happy with him again . My deepest sympathy to all of you . Anne Daumler##imported-begin##Anne Daumler##imported-end##

“ I worked with Jenny, who became a friend as well as a coworker. She was very good to me as I was to her. We have all missed her since she left Barry County Mental Health. Please know you have my deepest sympathy for your loss. A line from a poem, "for even though she now gone a bit of her stayed here". Cheryl

“ Jenny was a very caring individual who cared deeply for others. She was gentle and had a very calming spirit. It was a privilege to work with her even if only for a short time.

“ It is hard for me to think about a world without such a wonderful person as Jenny. She saw me through many issues when we were in school together at Ferris. She and Lo were always there for me any time I needed them. May they walk hand in hand for eternity. I will miss both of them.

“ Jen was a special friend to my daughter, Ashley. She was able to touch the lives of our whole family through that friendship. We grieved with her when she lost Ang and we grieve with you now as she goes to be with him.

“ Jenny was an amazing person and an even more amazing friend. My life was so much better because she was in it. We shared a birthday, a profession and a love for life that spanned a great friendship. Jenny loved my daughter Hayden as if she was her own. Jenny's passion for life is one that I will never forget. I loved her and I will miss her, and her memory will stay with me always.##imported-begin##Ashley James##imported-end##

“ Jenny- Never did the world see a friendship as odd, but true, as you and me. How could the turtle and the moth be such good friends? Your slow, easy and gentle ways calmed down my hectic unfocused flight. Missing you terribly Sister...##imported-begin##Karrie Ann Lietz##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Jennifer and I were best of friends when we both lived in Colonial Heights subdivision in Tuscumbia. She moved when I was very young, but I will always remember my red headed friend! Love in Christ,

“ Jenny... we will miss you. We may not have been blood, but you will always be my sister. There is a space in my heart that belongs to you forever. I remember the day we met and how we were instant friends. I also remember the exact moment you and Angelo met and everyone knew it was something special. I cried tears of joy at your wedding and drew a sigh of relief every time we made the trip to Michigan to visit with you over the holidays. I will think of you often and have already begun talking to you as I fold laundry or drive my son to swim practice. I love you and miss you.###imported-begin###Stacey, Justin and Gabriel###imported-end##

“ My dearest Jenny-- You were like a sister to me and I will always love you for who you were and what you have become when you transitioned. Your heartbreak over Lo's passing was felt deeply and widely. The two of you were one of many supporters who gave your love to Bear and I when our world came crashing down and I will always remember you for that.

I still thank you both for the cassette player you gave me to help Bear out-- I still have it. Your loss in the Pagan Pride Day organization has been felt-- we also deeply grieve over that. If they have PPD's in the Summerland, let me know and I will be Regional Coordinator for that. lol

You and Lo are together again-- walking hand in hand in the Summerland. Your leaving us is very strongly felt in our Pagan community-- we are all deeply grieving the lose of you presence and of Lo's. Please know that we love you deeply and unconditionally-- Our paths will cross again into our next life--

You are my Sister in the Goddess and don't you ever forget that. Go in peace Sistah-- See you on the other side.

Love you forever and always--
