

Jessie Gene Yocom

October 29, 1972 - November 11, 2025

Jessie Gene Yocom was born October 29, 1972 in Hinsdale, IL to Rayburn and Sandra Yocom. Jessie liked riding his four-wheeler and enjoyed visiting with family every day. He was an intelligent man who could remember dates, numbers, and birthdays. He loved hanging out with his family, especially his father, his uncle, George and his brother John. His smile was energetic and could light up any place. He was full of mischief and loved by all who knew him. He had a love of cars and going to the junk yard where he could go on tows with the drivers. His nephews and nieces were his life.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his parents Rayburn and Sandra Yocom; Brothers, Johnathon Yocom (Patricia), Bryan Yocom (Melinda); Sister, Joann Hutto (Abe Mendoza); Nieces, Olivia Mae Yocom, Edith Kay Yocom; Nephews, Guthrie Rayburn Hutto, Alexander Vernon, Travis Yocom, Graham Jacob Yocom and a host of loving aunts, uncles, beloved cousins and friends.

“ Before I even knew Jessie personally, my family and I would always see him walking down the road. After Gage and I got together, we all saw him again and said, “Look, he’s walking again.”—and Gage said, “That’s my family.” I’ll always remember Jessie that way—always on the move

“ Jessie was a man of few words. If asked a question he would say: yes, no, or I don't know. But ask him someone's birthday day he would know it immediately. Although he lived in Illinois. When he came to his second home here in Alabama he would ride his 4 wheeler all day. He would ride the trails in the woods or ride up the road to visit his relatives.
