“ I thank God for the privilege for such a loving, kind, gracious and humble Father. You were my person, my hero, and my heart. You made this world a better place with your huge heart and unwavering kindness. There is a huge hole in my heart but I know you are no longer in pain and you are in the arms of Jesus. I will continue to make you proud Dad every day of my life. I love you more.

I love this picture. I keep it beside my bed so I can look at it when I first wake up. I dearly love my family.

“ John, I miss you so much. We shared so many precious moments together. I remember in February when you told me you had cancer —you were so brave and faced this horrible journey with so much strength. Your faith in God’s will for your life amazed me. We as a family enjoyed so much precious time together. We talked and shared our life together and laughed so much. Our time together meant so much to all of us. Your daughters were so good to you and were available to make your last days memorable. I will never forget a second of our time together. Nicole, Lindsay, Brad, Wes, Katie, Westin, Jim, Diane, Randell and I created a unique bond and shared the reality of what we were all experiencing. We cried many tears and begged God to heal you. God blessed our time together. Our hearts are broken and our grief is unbearable but God has been with us every step of the way. We are so thankful that we all know without a doubt that you are healed and praising Jesus.in your new home. John, your legacy lives on. You are loved so much. BECKY STRICKLAND GILMORE

Dad knows your heart through your actions towards him. He got a cancer diagnosis and you abandoned him, stole from him, and put him thru terrible divorce proceedings while he was trying to fight his cancer. You even stated that I, your own words " are glad that he suffered," as you were in his house trying to steal his jewelry and opioid cancer prescriptions. You are a wretched evil human being and I am ashamed that you gave birth to me. My dad deserved so much better, so take your show somewhere else you evil person. You are just glad that you might get a little profit off of this.

I thought when you abandoned a spouse and filled for divorce you were no longer a spouse. Dad's character showed in everything he did how strong his relationship with the Lord is. Your words and insulations will never change that.
