“ Let me start by thanking you for allowing me to direct the services and for allowing me to be a part of your family as well. its not something we could ever prepare for and it will be very hard on the road up ahead but only god knows what it holds so we must put our faith and complete trust in him..and little JO JO He will remain in my heart.. as i remeber the last words he spoke to me.. "I LOVE YOU CALEB" and i loved him just as much. But just think how happy he was down here with us i can only imagine how happy he is now and the things he is doing in heaven.. no more sickness, no pain,he'll never shed another tear NEVER... nothing but smiles up there. and family just know that if you need anything you can come to me and ill do the best i can and if i cant do it then we'll take it to god and i know with out a doubt he can fix anything! I love you all...

“ To The Family:

I am sorry for your loss, losing a loved one is very hard to deal with. The Bible's message of a resurrection to life on a peaceful earth gives a measure of comfort and the hope that we will see our loved ones again. (Acts 24:15, Rev 21:4, Psalm 37:11) We can all look forward to a time in the near future when almighty God will return family members to us just as Jesus demonstrated when he returned Lazarus to his family. Please accept my sincere condolences.##imported-begin##Justin Burd##imported-end##
