“ I am so sad to learn of Judith's passing. I will always remember the few days we spent with you getting acquainted and learning more about the Scharnagel family. Judith called Charles at Christmas time for several years after that. I am sorry that we lost contact with your family.

My Charles passed away June 29, 2020. You can find his obituary on legacy.com if you would care to read it. You need to request it by his full name, Charles Richard Scharnagel. Charles was the last with the Scharnagel name descended from Andrew Scharnagel. If I remember correctly Judith was descended from Christian, Andrew's brother.

I pray that God will give your family comfort.

“ I am so sad to recently finding Judy passed away. I first met Judy when her Mother was a Resident at Terrace Manor when I was a Nurse there. Instantly I was proud to know such a wonderful ,caring , and loving lady who daily visited her precious sweet Mother, Clara. I always looked forward to our conversations together. Judy was very beautiful and so intelligent. Her Mother Clara proudly said, “my daughter Judy was so intelligent that she should have and wanted to become a physician.” I later used their tax services each year and loved talking with Judy over the phone and at the office. I will miss you dearly Judy and will remember your kindness, Christian attributes, love for family, and intelligence sharing knowledge to help ones like me. Praying for your wonderful family in your great loss of precious Judy. In Christian Love, Phyllis Burleson Grissom

“ My condolences to the Foster family which has really grown! Many new generations of Fosters from Mr. Bill and Mrs. Judy’s love ❤️ I always loved her since I was a very small child. They lived behind us off of Scott Street and I was only 4 and Joe was probably 3 but we played together and I remember her being so kind. As I grew older I used Mr.Bill as my accountant and Mrs. Judy always lit up the office with her beautiful smile and outgoing personality. She always asked about my family and made me feel special. I will always remember her and will sincerely miss her beautiful face 😍☐
❤️ RIP 🙏

“ Family,
Judy was surely a nice, sweet lady. Will miss her pretty smile when I go to the office; won't ever be the same without her there to greet me. You all have precious memories I'm sure of a wonderful mother/grandmother/wife.
