“ My sweet Kristie. You were my dear cousin. My 1st friend. My best friend for many, many years. Every day possible we wanted to spend together. We were such the pair that our hard working dads wanted to name their business adventure after us, K&C! We had such good times, pure joy and a little mischievous times along the way. The person I am today is partly because of you. You always amazed me the way you could remember details of our growing up. I will never stop loving you. You are a part of me. Love you always my sweet girl! Chish Chili Pie

“ Words cannot express the heartbreak and sadness and no words can bring comfort to those who are feeling this loss. I watched Kristie grow up and was part of her life. I know the world is a darker place without her. Her loving heart and huge smile was a beacon in a room, beautiful both outside and inside. Only prayers for Gods love and comfort for those left with the task to carry on daily life. Know that our Lord in heaven has wrapped his loving arms around her and her smile is beaming in heaven.
