“ Kristy loved her children more than life itself; she was proud of them and they brought her great joy. She found true love and a great husband that appreciated and cared for her. I'm so glad her Uncle Jim was able to visit her recently. May you walk with Jesus dear child, although greatly missed you're in a better place.

“ I met Kristy several years ago when she and I worked together at Walmart. She had such a fun, outgoing spirit that everyone loved. Always willing to do anything for anyone, even if she didn't know them. She will be missed by so many. My thoughts and prayers are with her family during this difficult time. Praying for peace and understanding.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Kristy from our childhood and reconnected with her as adults. She was a kind woman and a mischievous little girl. I have many fond memories from our childhood. Kristy was a woman who loved her family and the Lord. She touched many lives. I pray that the memories of her sustain her family until the time they see her again.
