“ I happened to find this on the Internet a couple days ago. I thought you might be interested to know that Leassia was a majorette in my father’s band in Haleyville Alabama. He was the director. I think it was his first job out of college after my parents got married. He graduated from Auburn. They thought she was the sweetest person and very beautiful and decided to name their daughter after her if they ever had a daughter.

Well, I am that daughter! I have always loved my unique name and I knew I was named after a sweet young lady my parents met many years ago.

Her name lives on! I am now 55 years old and have always had compliments on my beautiful name.

On another note, Leassia Quick died the day after my father did last year. He died May 24, 2020. His name was William “Willie” Hammett.

“ Leassia and her sisters were beauties in our little town. Their brother Steve and a friend were First Aid folks to my Gurl Scout troops back in The day. Their parents were dear to me. Clarine let me ride to the Textile Mill with her for my first job. Steve was just a baby. RIP Leassia.
