

Linda F Pounders

March 24, 1947 - April 27, 2020

Linda Faye Pounders, 73, of Tuscumbia, Alabama, passed away April 27, 2020, at her residence. Born in Franklin County, Alabama, she was a member of Siloam Baptist Church and retired from Bank Independent where she had worked 45 years. She was a devoted mother and grandmother.

Mrs. Pounders is survived by her sons: Greg Pounders, Gary Pounders and wife Heather, and Alan Pounders and wife Amanda; sisters: Eula Mae Boyles and Ruby James and husband Johnny; grandsons: Kadin Pounders, Zane Pounders and wife Jasmine, Shanley Pounders, Theran Pounders, Erik Pounders, Connor Mann and Carson Nash; great grandchildren: Easton and Jaycen Pounders and Maya Mann; and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Hudon Pounders, and parents Fred and Dallas Motes Thompson.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, a private graveside service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or to St. Jude's Research Hospital.

Pinkard Funeral Home, Russellville, is directing.

“ I am so saddened to hear of your dearly departed Mother. Seems unreal that both your parents have moved on. Growing up so near to all of you, it somehow felt that we were extended family. Although, through the years we didn't visit that much. But, you've always remained in our hearts. May God's Love help you through these dark days. Wishing You All Peace.
