“ My grandmother has done so much for me and has taught me so much and had been the most important person in my life since I was little. I am writing this so I can honor her for her birthday. I can look to her example as the positive impact she has had on so many people. In the words she told me, she is a hummingbird now. I pray fo Wayne to make a recovery, Blessings Lee Samelson###imported-begin###Lee Samelson###imported-end##

“ I am so fortunate to be a member of this family and to have known the love of this fine lady, as her Daughter-in-Law. I cherish my memories dearly and will always carry them in my heart and soul. She gave so much to so many in this world and in turn she enjoyed bountiful blessings.....rightly so. I know she gave her whole heart to me and I to her. I will miss her so, so much but her goodness and her beauty will always shine a light in my heart. May God carry this wonderful woman to glory.##imported-begin##Fran Hyatt##imported-end##
