“ I will never forget singing with Magel in church. At singings and a So at funerals, she will be missed, praying for the family may God gibe you all comfort and strength during this terrible time.

“ One of my most fond childhood memories was attending singing school at Sardis Church with Magel. What a great time I had. Although I was only about 5 or 6 years old, it instilled in me, to this day, a love for southern gospel music and the old classic hymns. She was a sweet lady that I will always hold dear in my heart.

“ Today, I have cried and remembered and smiled at all the precious memories I have of childhood days spent with Homer and Magel. Today, there is yet another reason to look forward to heaven, and today, I pray that I can be more like the Proverbs 31 woman that Magel Miles was...so much more precious than rubies. She truly understood the beauty of a simple life well-lived, and we were all beyond blessed who had the privilege of knowing her. Kim Melvin (Harvey)

“ I'm so VERY sorry for the loss you're having to go through! She was, is, and will ALWAYS a VERY classy lady. I love you and all and am praying the God put his hedge of protection for all of you during this darkest hour and comfort you all.

With much love from the bottom of my heart- God has got your back, and if you're ever down, ALWAYS remember the story about the Footprints in the sand

Sincerely,

“ Homer and family, I am sad with learning of passing of Magel, but I know she is once again retored and well and happier than ever. You have been so good to her these last yrs that I know about there across the hall from my mother at Haleyville Health Care. Be comforted knowing she is again well. that wife and mother and grandmother before she got sick...Wynell Lee Howell
