“ We were very much saddened to read of the passing of Margaret. She was a precious neighbor of ours for several years in Russellville and on City Lake Drive. I remember the girls growing up and being a part of my "advisory Panel" when I was doing yard work.

Those are the kind of memories worth remembering from now on. May God wrap His loving arms about all the rest of the family and the Holy spirit help you in coping with your loss.

“ Carol,
I'm so sorry to see the obituary for Margaret Matlock. It's so difficult to deal with her death especially on a Holiday weekend. I hope she wasn't ill for a long time.... That's a very heavy burden. I know you'll handle her death with honor, and dignity, as well as Celebrate her life. God Bless you and yours as you deal with your grief and Loss. Blessed Be one and all ,
Susan

“ I am so sorry about Margaret. She was one of the sweetest and caring people I have known. I always loved when she came to the store. It was such a pleasure knowing her. My prayers are for you her sweet family that God arms will be wrapped tight around you now and in the days to come. Love Kim Pickett....
