

Marilyn Gail Cooper

July 18, 1952 - May 6, 2024

With the heaviest of heart, we announce the passing of Marilyn Gail Cooper, also known as “Nanny”, 71, passed away May 6th, 2024, surrounded by her family.

The loss of Gail brings a sadness to the world, for when she was in it, the sun shined a little brighter and the birds sang a little louder. Gail was the most beautiful of souls you could meet. She loved with her whole heart, she would care and give for everyone that came into her path throughout her journey of life. She used her gift and was a school teacher for 34 years. She retired from Hackleburg Elementary School, so she could care for her husband, Freddy Cooper. After retirement, she lived the most rich of life, surrounded constantly with family and loved ones doing her favorite things.

Gail is survived by her Sister - Gwenda Veras (Joe), Daughter -Kelly Rouse (Larry), Son- Casey Cooper (Alicia) Grandchildren- Ashton Waldrop (Matt), Aidan Rouse, Mason Swinney, Mary Kathryn Swinney, Samuel Swinney, Saylor Cooper, Alexa Rouse, Alivia Rouse. One great grandchild Cooper Waldrop. Brothers- Larry Cooper (Brenda), Paul Cooper.

She is preceded in death by her husband - Freddy Cooper, Sister- Connie Vickery, Brother -Joey Haithcock, and her parents- J.W. and Marjorie Haithcock.

Gail’s Service will be held at Pinkard Funeral Home in Russellville AL, on Saturday, May 11th, with visitation from 11:00 AM-1:00 PM, and the Funeral Service at 1:00 PM in the Chapel.

“ Have lots of memories of Gail. She and I walked at the Hodges park many times laughing and solving the world problems. As a home health nurse I cared for her sister Connie and her mom. A very loving and caring family .
