“Mark League was a good man. I had the privilege of meeting him as a teenager, well over a decade ago, when my wife and I were running a couple of small businesses in the Moody area. He was all parts the gentleman, and always had a smile to offer you. As I got older, I became employed by the Birmingham Airport Authority where Mark and I crossed paths again.

Mark, you were encouragement and support to a young man new to the industry, and a friend in an unfamiliar world. Through you, I learned about the aviation industry and through your encouragement, earned a promotion and career with the port authority. Through you, I met the family of aviators, mechanics and linemen in and around Birmingham, and I've made friendships and great relationships along the way. Your friendship will be one I never forget.

Whenever I see Ain't Misbehavin' and her sister Texans fly, my thoughts will be of you, brother.

Fly free, and rest easy at the Lord's side.

“ Mark was a good man. He frequented the sandwich shops my wife and I ran for years, and I was stunned to hear about his passing. Brother Mark, you were always an inspiration and support, and when I started working for the Port Authority you kept me encouraged and introduced me to some of the finest people in this industry, from the Watts family, mechanics, aviators and the FBO linemen alike. Everytime Ain't Misbehavin' and her Texan sisters launch, you will be in my thoughts.

Fly free, brother.

“ Mark was a good Friend...
We flew together, worked together and shared our interest in Aviation. Mark was always the center of the Birmingham Aviation Circle and never too busy to let a new person in. When you wanted something done meticulously & correct, Mark was the only Guy to turn to.
He was kind to everyone with a gentle heart, loved his Family and showed that same love to others he came in contact with.
Mark was a great Person and he'll be missed by many... East Ramp will never be the same without you Dear Friend. Goodbye Mark...

“ Mark was such a good friend to my dad, Evan Zeiger, Sr. They had so much fun working on airplanes! Mark took such good care of Dad! I appreciate him.

Mark was also a good friend of my brother, Evan Zeiger, Jr. Those men sure did love that P-51!

Mark let me bring some friends to the P-51 hangar for a tour once. He did an excellent job entertaining them with stories and answering questions.

Mark gave me a great tour of his hangar where he was working on his helicopter when it was just in pieces. That was a fun day, knowing he would put it all together.

Mark came to the house to visit my Mom even though she was no longer able to remember who he was. She enjoyed his visit.

Mark was a fine man who loved the Lord. He loved my dad and I loved him for that. He will be missed. Praying for God's comfort for his family and friends.

Love,
