“ Sharmaine and Amy, I first met your parents in the doctor's office about six or eight months ago. I recognized her, but had never really met her. After introducing myself, she began to share with me about the grandchildren.

Obviously, both were very proud of their children and grandchildren. I know the sadness of losing Mother, but I also know how special memories are. Thinking of you and your dad. Judy Ponders

Ruth was my mothers best friend. She and Ruth shared many days with the twins and my parents and yours played a lot of music. Your parents are precious. I never check in with this section of the Times, but today for no reason I clicked on an email that opened up the times and there was the announcement. A loss - another Great Lady. She will be missed.
