“ I'm just learning of Lisa's passing. My heart breaks for all of her loved ones. My thoughts and prayers will be going up. May you feel God's arms wrapped around you comforting you..I didn't get the opportunity to get to know her. But she was a beautiful young lady and her smile lit up a room. I remember her laughter and kindness. I knew you all miss her dearly. I'd like to think she's sitting at Jesus' feet singing, dancing and waiting til all her loved ones joins her. Her body's gone but she's so much still with you. In all that's good, beautiful, kind, and joyful....she's there.
May you all feel God's arms wrapped around you comforting each of you...give you peace that passes all understanding.

“ Words cannot accurately describe the sadness I feel for my family. In our younger years, Lisa and I were especially close. I still have many typewritten letter she sent to me over the years. She was fun and sweet. I enjoyed every moment we spent together. My heart goes out to everyone who knew and loved her, and to her son Truman most of all. The loss of a mother at such a young age is tragic.
