“ I remember sweet Sue when Charlie preached at Thornhill church of Christ in Marion County about 30 years ago. They were the sweetest people. Loved too listen to her sing in church, she had a beautiful voice. She will truly be missed by all who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with Charlie and the family, during this said time in her life. Love to all. Jeanny Barnett.

“ I am privileged to have met Sue a few years ago when Charles preached in Tarrant, Alabama. She is special to me because her father, Howard, my father's first cousin, encouraged me to preach when I was but a lad.

Sue and Charles were deeply committed to each other and to the Lord. I believe Sue is at rest. All who knew her will miss her. (James Andrews)
