“ I was so heartbroken when I didn't get the news in time to extend my respects. Myrt was good to me through the years and would help me when I was down. I hope she knew how much I thought of her because when I would call I would forget to ask how Leonard was because I loved our long conversations. I know earth is missing a Godly woman but she is in heaven now away from this painful world. God bless the friends and family.

“ Leonard, Donna, and Families, We are so very sorry about Myrt. She was a beautiful lady inside and out.
She was a good Christian example to us and we loved her so very much. Our hearts are so sad for you as I know all too well what you are going through as I lost my precious Mother/friend a few months ago. Even though I know they are in a better place, there is such a void in my heart and I miss them so much. I've had a hard time dealing with the loss of Mother and that is why I couldn't come to the funeral home. I loved Myrt so very much and was able to tell her that a few months ago. Leonard we love you and we are keeping you and Donna in our thoughts and prayers. God is good and He does help us deal and get through day by day. Love to you all. Peggy, Gary, Kevin, &
