“ Family,
I am so very sorry for your loss of a wonderful Mother, Grandmother, Sister, and Friend. I had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Suddith for the past 8 years, and she was always a joy to visit. I know she loved you all so very much. I could see it when I visited and she would be making blankets for everyone, careful not to leave anyone out. I know God has another Angel in His presence, but more than that, she has touched His face. Take comfort in that thought.

With Love,
Cindy##imported-begin##Cindy Ragan##imported-end##

“ Your mother was a good friend to my mother, Bertha Murphy. They worked together at The King Frosty. My mother passed away May 11th, 2011 at age 92. Your mother always made me laugh. I know you all will miss her. She is now rejoicing with Jesus. My prayers are with you all.##imported-begin##Annie Murphy##imported-end##
