“ I will never forget you, you taught me so much, and were my sweet precious friend and Mother Nurse. I love you Mildred. I know you are resting with our Savior and I will see you again. There has to be a special place in heaven for you, you were already an angel. I will never forget the tears we shed and hugs when you came to see me last year.##imported-begin##Connie Garrison Maggerise##imported-end##

“ Cindy,

My prayers are with you at this most sad time in your life. Your Mom was so loved by many people who she came in contact with and will be missed greatly. Her wit and sweet smile will always be missed. I love you and am praying that God will wrap his arms around you and all your family to give you strength and peace as he only knows how to give.
