“ To Olga's family: You don't know me at all but I am among the many people who admired and loved Olga. She was a few years older than I. When I was in high school, I looked up to Olga as a popular and poised young woman who laughed often and loved people. She had a delightful laugh. Olga was beautiful inside and out. After my husband, Tim, and I came back to Haleyville after college, Olga and Earl included us in various gatherings. We had so much fun with them and other mutual friends. Though I have not seen her in recent years, I'll always remember her with great fondness. I am blessed that we were friends. I send my sympathy to all of you in Olga's family. You were blessed to have such a lovely, caring mother and family member. God bless you all as you live your lives knowing you are blessed because part of her will live on in you.

*Sympathy and love,

I just wanted to say you are all in my prayers and I am so sorry for your loss. I only met Olga once or twice, but I can tell she was a good mother by how her children carried themselves.
