“ Our heart felt sympathy goes out to Tal's family truely a great loss. Tal was a very giving man, treated all of us with kindness. I will never forgot Cindy and I messing up the BBQ that night, Or the big huge tomatoes he set back with us to Michigan. My daughter still loves the horseshoe he gave to her and I know that my husband truely enjoyed the hunt club with him.I know i will never forget when when My husband Broke Mom's porch swing and Tal was laughing so hard when he told us all. Just some of the memories my family has with him. Tal was truely a wonderful man I so gald we had the honor of knowing a wonderful man.He will always hold a special place in our hearts forever. May Gods peace and comfort be with you in this time of loss.##imported-begin##Stephen and Lisa Manthei ##imported-end##

“ Big O will always be remembered for bring a good friend. I will remember the making of hush puppies together and Big O made the best croppie. He was such a giving gracious man and good cook. He always wore his apron.
We had alot of good laughs and I will miss his country road driving. Oh how he enjoyed the casino's amd saying one more time just one more time.
We had alot of great times even went to the hunt club in pouring down rain and wipers did not work almost got stuck in mud hollow. Big O showed me how he made his wine. There are so many things that we got into. I will miss my buddy. Rest in peace Big O.##imported-begin##Gerald Vanwasshnova##imported-end##

“ Nan and Family
You are in our thoughts and prayers... Tal was very special and very dear to all of our Family ... He will truly be missed... We are proud to have the honor of having him as part of our extended Family... We treasure all the times we spent together with Tal... We all love Tal and now will treasure the memories in our hearts forever... Mother and Tal had a special bond that will never be forgotten.... They were there for each other a truly special companionship that will no be forgotten... Mother was there to the very end when God called Tal home....
God bless all during this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Linda & Jerry VanWasshnova##imported-end##
