“ Donna & family,
Wayne & I want to send you our deepest symphamty. I know when I was down there friday I know he was suffering. As you said he was ready to met your mother. I am so sorry that I will not get to attend the funeral, but my sister is having surgery on wednesday and I had to come up today. But you are in my prayers and if you every need anything please give me a call. I had tryed to call you a couple of times before I left but was unable to get you. You had a wonderful dad, and wayne said that he sure was a good worker to. Love you Corkey & Wayne Crowe.##imported-begin##Corkey Crowe##imported-end##

“ Donna, I am so sorry for the loss of your dad. I to lost my dad six weeks ago, and the ache in my heart is still fresh. The bible teaches us that Jesus will not leave us alone, He will send a comforter to each of us. And I know that to be a fact because my comforter came to me the night before the death angel came to take daddy home to heaven. It was not my regular night to stay with daddy, but Gods plan had already been put into place. As I slept that night the Lord sent me comfort through a dream. And eleven hours later we saw the results of that dream as we watched our daddy pass from this world to a place that we can only imagine seeing some day. May God bless each of you.
