“ Words cannot express my feelings for the loss of you. I know that God needed you more in heaven than here on earth. I know Patricia that you had longed for the day to be with Julie. I can see the smile on your face when you saw her. I am so thankful God allowed us to be friends. I love you like a sister. I know you all are rejoicing together right now. I love you and Don so much and you will truly be missed. A void will always be in my heart from the loss of you two.##imported-begin##The Paschals (Ricky and Martha)##imported-end##

“ I'm so sorry to hear of you loss. I live in north Madison just south of where the tornado hit in Harvest, AL where I was cleaning my yard and found Patricia Gentry return address mailing labels. I wanted to sent a card to wish her well but was saddened to find that she and other family members had lost their lives. God my test our faith but through our faith and his sacrifice we'll have everlasting life. May God bless.##imported-begin##David Hinger, Madison, AL##imported-end##

“ I had the honor of meeting Patricia and Don a few years ago thru Arlene Varney and Mary Greenhill from Russellville and seeing and hearing her sing. I live in Hazard, Ky. and have many friends in the area and our hearts and prayers go out to this family. Paul said to be absent from this body is to be present with the lord. It had been several years since I had seen them but I had recently added them to my facebook page. I will miss my friends but someday we will meet again. Now may you rest in peace til the day that we meet again!##imported-begin##Kenneth Hall##imported-end##

“ To the family of Donnie Gentry. I live west of Athens, Alabama. I found a paper in my yard and it is an Army discharge for Donnie L. Gentry, 602 Spruce Street, Bowagic, Michigan 49047' dated September 23, 1972. Unfortunately, when I looked your Dad up on Google, I found your parents obituaries. My condolences to your family at this awful time in your life.
You may need this paper for veterans benefits for a marker and towards burial and want this paper for remembrance. Plead contact me at the above. Email or call me at 256.771.8013 at your convience. Again, I am sorry for your loss.
Sincerely,

“ In Our Heart

*We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.*

*We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.*

We think of you in silence.

We often speak your name.

Now all we have is memories.

And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake.

With which we'll never part.

God has you in his keeping.

Now resting in His arms.

*You are forever in our heart.##imported-begin##Arlene

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible clearly teaches that God will bring back to life many who now sleep in death.

(Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10; John 5:28, 29) They will return to a restored paradise earth. God's Word, the Bible, promises that God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." (Revelation 21:3, 4)

*May you find comfort from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)##imported-

“ Dear Family,

Losing a loved one can be devastating. However, please take comfort in knowing that death isn't the end. Jesus demonstrated that by what he did when he learned of his friend Lazarus' death when he was on earth. The account recorded in John chapter 11 shows that to those who were with him when he got the bad news, Jesus said: "Lazarus has falling asleep and I am going to awaken him". And just as he stated, the account also reveals that he asked Lazarus' relatives to take him to the grave where Lazarus was already buried for four days. When he got there, he called Lazarus, who came out alive and well like he was never dead. Amazing isn't it? What Jesus did them was a preview of what he'll do when he rules or governs the entire earth by means of his father's heavenly Kingdom/Government. (Daniel 7: 13 and 14); (Daniel 2:44) When that times comes, the following Scriptures confirm that Jesus will eliminate all the problems we face today such as SICKNESS, OLD AGE, WAR, VIOLENCE, PAIN, DEATH. EVEN OUR DEAD LOVED ONES WILL BE RESURRECTED. (Isaiah 33:24); (Job 33:25); (Psalms 46: 9 and 10); (Isaiah 2: 4); (Psalms 37: 9-11 and 29); (Revelation 21: 3 and 4); (John 5: 28 and 29).
