“ As a kid and teenager I was fortunate enough to spend time with my Aunt Peggy in her home. I have more wonderful memories than this space will allow. My Aunt Peggy was always loving. She devoted her life to taking amazing care of her daughter Rebecca. Aunt Peggy used to make me buckeyes and beef jerky for Christmas. She was a blessing to everyone who knew her. Aunt Peggy is probably not resting. Knowing her, she's up washing the feet of her Savior.
