“ Dear Mary Elizabeth, Beth, Anne and your families,
We will miss having Glen to share this life with he walked his faith each day and always shared the word with everyone .The joy of knowing him will always be with us. His commitment to the Lord, his family will be an inspiration to us always.
Mary Elizabeth and loved ones I will be praying for you
.Much love, Marcia Clark and family “ Glen was one of the most Godly men that I have ever known. I consider it an honor to have known him. His commitment to God , family and church is why I know The Lord is saying. “Well done my good and faithful servant”. Joann Hickox

“ We are so sad about Glen leaving this life, but we rejoice that he is with Jesus, and is healthy and well! We were blessed to have been at Pine Lake with the Crislens. Glen and I had many good conversations while keeping the nursery on Sunday nights. We had over 10 years at Pine Lake, and we are thankful for the many friends we made, including Glen and Mary. We are thankful for the chance to know this precious, down-to-earth man of God. Mary, we are praying for you, and trusting Gods comfort and blessing in your life.

*With much love,

“ Remembering Glen fondly from my Pine Lake days. Deacon, Mission Trip co-worker, and handy man willing to use his time and talents to serve the Lord. Will see him again later, and that's the best comfort we have, knowing that friends and family who belong to God are never really gone, we will simply have a reunion later.

“Crisler Family, Charlotte and I are praying that you will be uplifted during the days ahead knowing that Glen is with his Lord and celebrating with all the saints that have gone home before him. As a long-time friend of Glen's, I am sad to see him pass from this life, but at the same time I am joyous that he has received the reward of Eternal Life that he has told so many others about over his lifetime. Glen earnestly witnessed to everyone about their spiritual destiny. He sincerely wanted to see folks be saved from their sins. I was often privileged to join him in some of those witnessing opportunities. He was a man I admired with all of my heart. Glen conducted his personal and business life based on Biblical principles. He was a respected leader, particularly at Pine Lake Baptist Church where we worshipped together for half a century. His wisdom was one of his greatest assets. He loved and supported his church teaching the scripture to youth, adults and senior adults alike. Glen and I shared a passion that we both enjoyed ... gardening! He loved to plant, care for and harvest the Lord's bounty from his garden. Glen's love for his wife, Mary Elizabeth, and his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren are an example for all of us. Glen has fought the good fight. He has finished the race. He has kept the faith. (2 Tim. 4:7) Rest in peace dear friend! I will join you soon. Jimmy (and Charlotte) Davenport
