

Ralph E. Berry

August 24, 1932 - January 12, 2013

Ralph E. Berry, age 80, Haleyville, Al. passed away Saturday January 12, 2013. The Visitation will be Tuesday January 15, 2013 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Pinkard Funeral Home, Haleyville. Funeral service will be at 1:00 p.m. at the funeral home, with Pastor Scott Ward of the Littleville United Methodist Church officiating, Burial will follow in Winston Memorial Cemetery. Ralph, a devoted husband and father, was born in Winston County on August 24, 1932. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife of 61 years Willodean Pickard Berry; son, Steve Berry; the mother of his grandchildren, Paula Kay Berry; his two grandchildren, Drew Berry and Tiffany Berry; his great granddaughter, Olivia Berry; brother, Ray Berry; sister, June Berry Rea. Throughout his years, he watched his son grow to have a family of his own and gave his grandchildren wonderful memories of a great man which will last forever. Ralph served in the U.S. Army, returned home and worked for the Haleyville City School System until his retirement. He had the reputation at school, as well at home as the person who could fix anything. He continued using these skill during the ten years he spent working at the Haleyville Wal-Mart. Ralph deeply loved the Lord and served as a longtime member of his church by preparing for his Sunday school class, as well as serving communion. Above all, Ralph Berry has blessed us with memories of kindness and love that will be in our hearts forever. He was preceded in death by his parents, Willie Edward and Hattie Gertrude Berry; daughter, Zona Carol Berry; brothers Reynold, Travis and Clifford Berry; sisters, Edath Berry, Ivalean Donaldson and Wilma Lee Postell.
