“ To Ray's family we were saddened to hear about his passing. Although we were cousins, Ray and his brothers and sister were like siblings to us. My mother Lillian Hicks Cummings and Olamae Hicks Harbin were sisters and they were very close so we spent a lot of time together. It was funny they seemed to be pregnant together and I can't begin to tell you about all the fun and trouble we got into together. So Francis, thank you for loving Ray and taking such wonderful selfless care of him when he got sick. I love you very much for that .My prayers are with you and the rest of my cousins and family, I love you all and I know Ray is rejoicing in Heaven and we will see him again someday.
