“ Brother George was a good friend. There was never a doubt he loved his family and his country. But most of all he loved his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. George made no bones about it, "he loved to talk about, study about, and tell others about his wonderful Lord" The church will miss him greatly. I will miss him greatly. God has taken a great man home. I consider it a great honor to have know him. "George, I'm excited for you! You are now where you wanted to be, in the presence of God!"
