“ Dear Southerland family, I was 11 years old when I met Rex, and it saddens me deeply to hear of his passing. I want to convey my sympathy with great respect. I wanted to let you, his family, know that the times I was with him and anyone of you were around, what amazed me very much was the love that he and your family shared, He was allowed to be Rex. I thought WOW what a cool family, now at 50 years old, I dont know about cool, but I do know and remember what a "remarkable" family.

From just one of his many friends,

Love and prayers
