“ Rhonda was an angel, and the world was fortunate to have her. She had a way of loving unconditionally. I don't think she realized how much she influenced my life. It's an understatement to say she was like a second mother to me. She was a huge support to me as I grew up. I recall her instructing and reassuring us as i prepared to become young ladies. Sometimes I felt more at ease confiding in her than in my own mother. When I moved away, I lost touch and didn't keep in touch, but I hope she understood how much she was loved. This world had lost an incredible woman. Fly high mamma Rhonda.

“ My mother was in many ways my best friend. We talked most days several times a day or atleast at minimum before bed. My mother loved her job as a Bus driver and would always tell me of the funny stories and things the kids would show her, their Drawings or how their day went. She would truly listen to them about their day. I honestly have way to many memories to share with people as I should since I knew her my whole life I suppose. I just wanted to share with everyone how much she truly enjoyed her life and how special the kids on her bus were to her.
