“ *Rich was my oldest cousin. His mother was my Godmother and we lived fairly close when I was a young child. Aunt June was my father's oldest sister at that time and we always had great fun in family gatherings. My uncles and cousins would play baseball and we certainly had more than enough family to make two teams. This is a sad time for us all as we will miss him, but know his suffering has ended. May the joyful times with him through the years keep him close in his physical absence. With much love,

“ One of the things I remember fondly about Uncle Rich was his love of dogs and cooking. One day I was visiting him and he pulled out delicious smelling casserole out of the oven. Which he then promptly fed to his dogs. I loved that. Rest In Peace- Eric Cousino
