“ Uncle Ronald was a person I was proud to know. He is missed so very much. He was always so kind to me. He always took interest in whatever I had goin on. The last couple of years were very hard on our family. We lost so many and so much, but big Ronald never faltered. He and his family, Aunt Deb especially, were there for us when it felt like we were all alone. I never forget my husband's first birthday after everyone had past, Ronald and Deb showed up with cake and charcoal! It had felt like everyone had abandoned us, but just when we had give up hope, they pulled up. Ronald had guitar in hand, and he and Stefan played song after song. They sang well into the evening, sitting on the back porch, eating cake. He will always be in my heart, and I will always cherish the kindness that he showed us
