“ Ronnie will always remain someone special to our family. Not originally from the South, we were unfamiliar with Southern Cooking. Ronnie took care of that! Every holiday, no matter how much food was present, there was always room for his premier dish- Boston Butt. Salmon-cakes, Peach Pie were also likely to appear! and usually the first to disappear. This was usually followed by a challenge game of Pool. The challenge being how easily Ronnie would win. Holidays were always fun. However when help or advice was needed Ronnie was always there. If he was unsure or if he needed help then his brother Dexter was readily available. After the problem had been solved, the image of our friends cooling off with a cold drink, pontificating by Dexter's Pick-up will always remain a precious memory. Ronnie did not have a "bucket list".. He was contented in Franklin County, Alabama. He enjoyed Alabama football, Hunting and Fishing, Gardening and simply cutting grass. Ronnie's circle of life has been completed, we wish it had lasted longer, however it was full enough. Rest in Peace, dear, precious and true friend and like a brother to us, Maureen and Dennis Steele.
