“ Wendy, Justin, and Emily--
I just got the news. I am so heartbroken for you... he was such a beautiful child, and so loved by so many. There are no words that can comfort you right now but please know that you are in my heart and in my prayers. I am so sorry that I am not there with you... I know your lives will never be the same, but you will find strength to get through each day one moment at time. I love you. May your sweet Angel rest in peace.##imported-begin##Deanna Rolland##imported-end##

“ Such a tragedy and such a loss. Sailor was an AMAZING child and student. He loved computers and music and I enjoyed having him in my music and computer classes. I miss him and I'm so sorry for your loss. Continue to uplift you in prayer. Glad that you both have been making progress with your health. Please know that you have so many people praying for you. Hope that you will be able to leave the hospital soon!
Blessings and love to you,

“ Dear Justin, Wendy, and family,
May the Lord Bless you and keep you,
May the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you,
May the Lord lift His countenance upon you and give you peace.
Num.6:24-26 No, I cannot begin to understand your pain and anguish, but I can keep you in my prayers (and I will). Sailor is in a place of rest and peace and safe in the arms of Jesus....of that we can rest assured!

“ Dear Knight family: I truly don't know where to began because I can't even imagine how you are feeling, but please know we are praying for each of you daily. Sailor is a beautiful angel and if we accept God into our life as our Savior we will see Sailor again because we all know without one doubt he is in heaven with God almighty. We don't always understand things that happen in our life but God knows best even if we don't understand now we will some day. My heart and my love goes out to each of you. I pray you will reach out to friends, family and most of all God during this heart breaking time because God more than anyone can give you the peace you need to make it thru this difficult time.Love always Mike, “ Justin and Wendy, Our prayers are with you during this tragic time. We pray for your healing both physically and spiritually. We are taught as Christians to not question God's Divine Will. But as humans, in our sinful nature, we fail to heed His instruction. Take comfort in the assurance from God Almighty that you will once again see your precious son by remaining strong and faithful to His Word. In Christian Love,##imported-begin##Jeff, Consuela and Olivia Rice##imported-end##

“ Justin, Wendy and family--I was so heartbroken to hear of little Sailor's passing as well as the multiple losses and injuries your family has faced.
I only knew little Sailor through my cousin Leisa. But hearing about him through her heart, I felt as if I knew him. I know he was special and touched everyone's heart. He is truly heaven sent. May God be with the family in this time of loss.##imported-begin##Brenda Lovett Mareth##imported-end##

“ Justin, Wendy and family,
As a friend and Christian brother in Christ, I want to express the loving care that your fellow neighbors, friends, Christians and community has for your family. Your family has been very near and dear to me over the years, I had some of the best times of my life as an adult while working with Randy Green (Our Coach) and enjoying the Summer Olympics games we played on the Commodore 64 Computer. You and Craig were like my own nephews-actually we spent more time together than I did with my own nephews & nieces. One of the most important lessons of life the "Coach" taught us was to never give up no matter what the present outcome or situation was. I hope and pray that God will send his Spirit of Comfort to bring your family healing peace and the assurance that if you dedicate your lives to God that one day you may see Salior again around God's glorious white throne of Grace. We need to hold on to each other as Christians and friends to help us all get to Heaven to be reunited with all of our families in Heaven.

May God's Peace and Comfort be Yours,
